YOUR STYLE · YOUR FLOOR

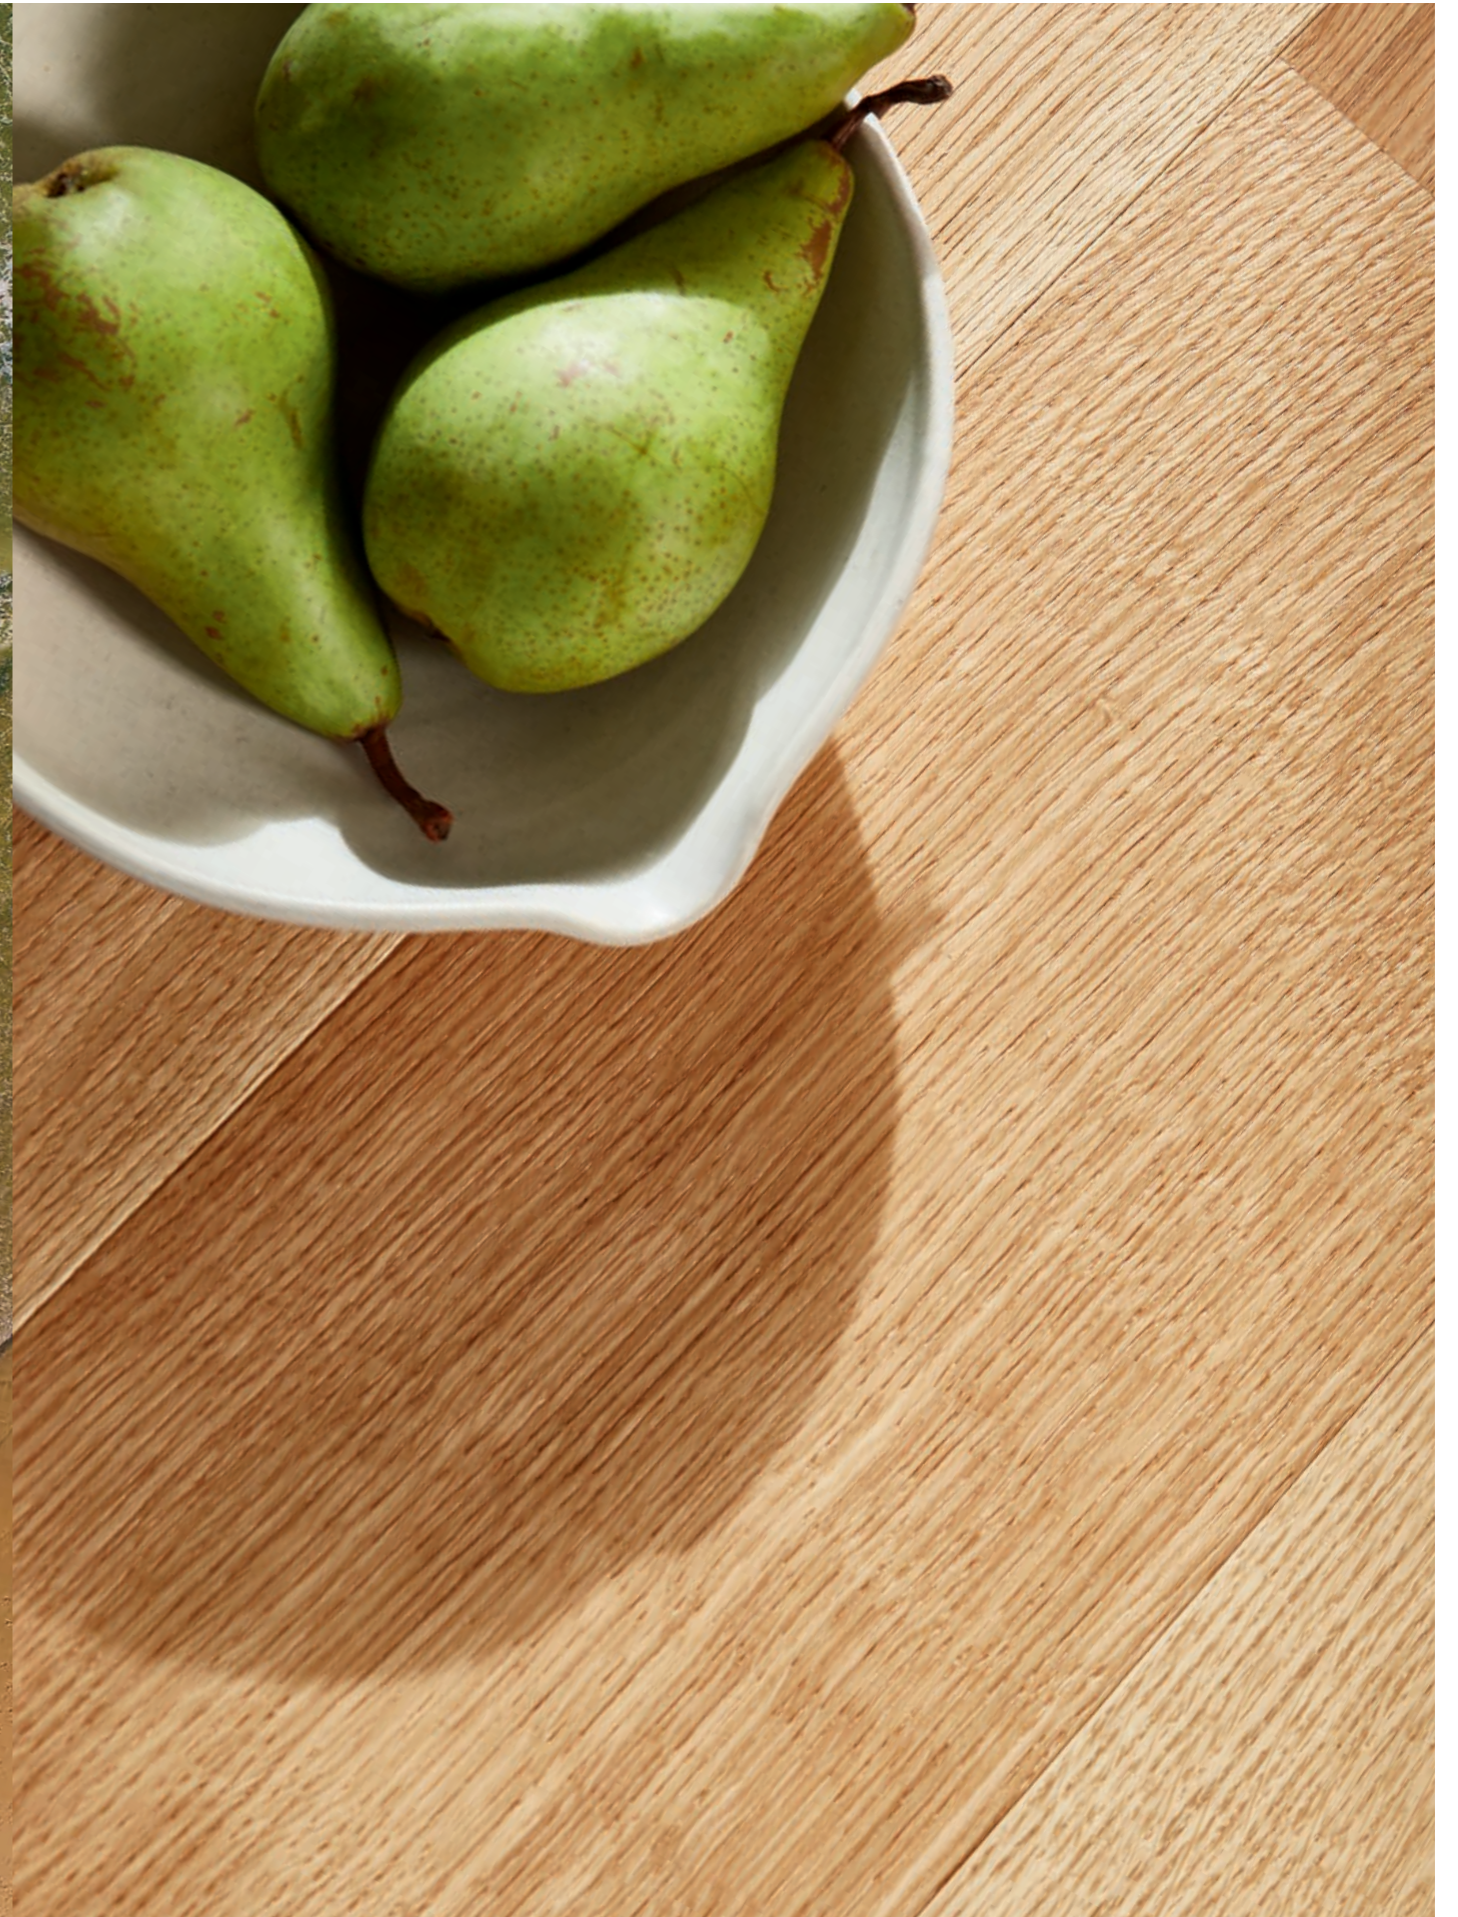

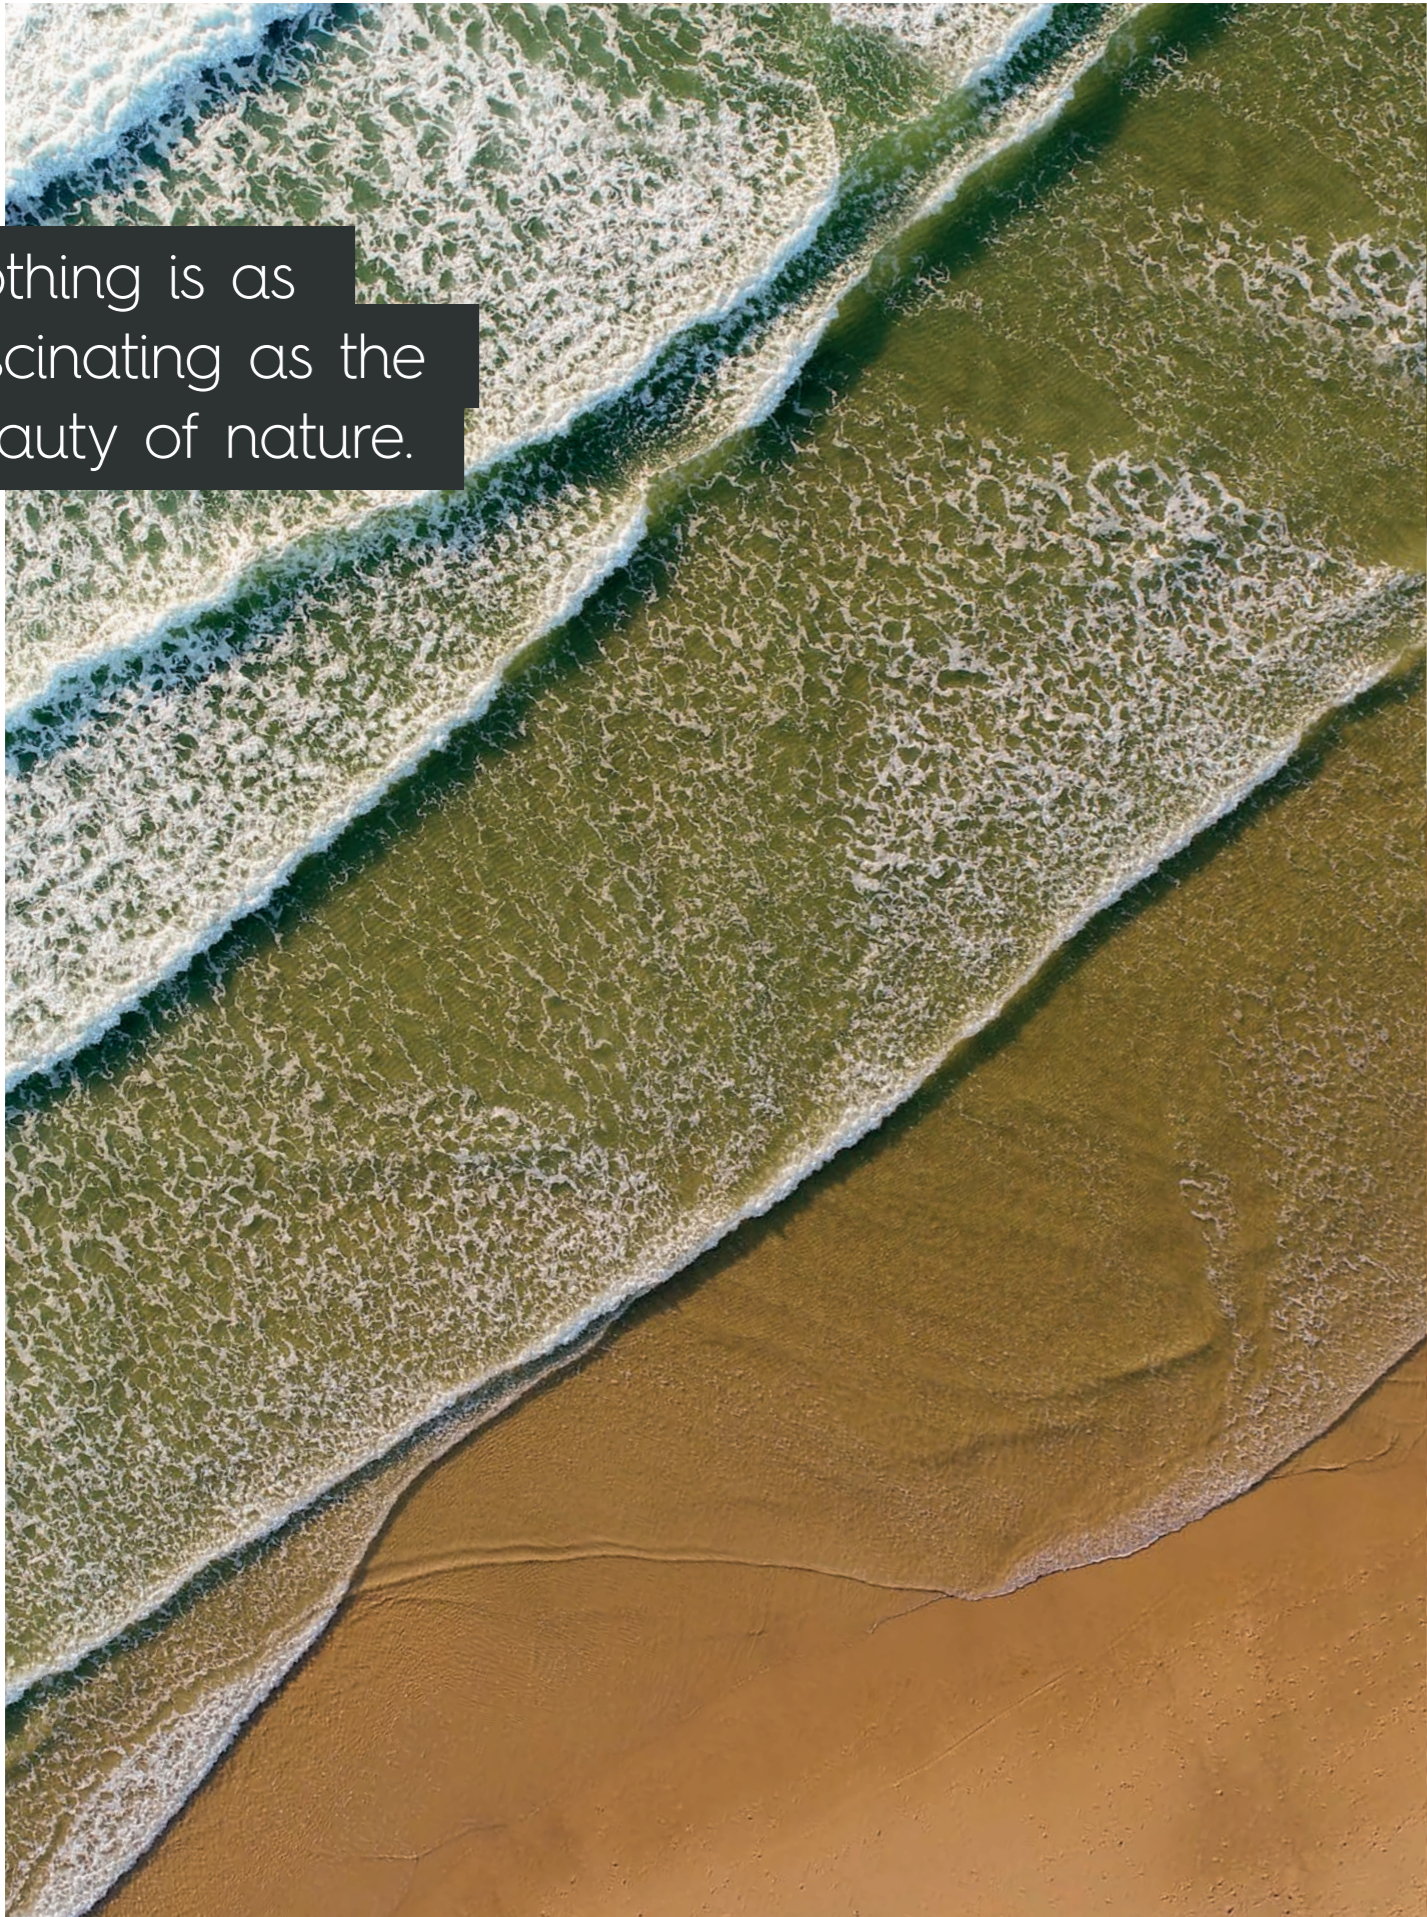

SIMPLY OAK

Genuine naturalness – completely authentic and immediate: a hardwood floor made from oak brings the fascinating beauty and variety of nature into your home.

An oak hardwood floor is so much more than just a floor made from wood. Its structure, colourfulness and vibrancy are incomparable. With its grain, knots and fine colour nuances, each individual plank has its own innate natural expressiveness. Multifaceted and full of character, an oak hardwood floor underlines your very own personal style: whether clear Scandinavian, classically elegant, urban or inspired by the country house style. This is exactly why an oak floor is the hardwood floor par excellence. For centuries – and down the generations: simply oak. Simply naturally beautiful and incredibly varied.

Nothing is as fascinating as the beauty of nature.

Oak Andante

Simple elegance yet wonderfully cosy: the grading of the Oak Andante planks is characterised by calm and balance. A fine grain with just a few, small knots makes for a reserved yet sophisticated look. Ideal for Scandinavian interiors and rooms that are unassuming and discreet yet invitingly stylish. Treated with Live Pure, the wood surface even looks a touch lighter than the naturally oiled variant. Almost as though it has been freshly sawn.

Oak Animoso

Genuine, varied and full of natural beauty: Oak Animoso captures everything that makes nature so unique. You can feel the strength of the tree, with its branches and knots that give rise to attractive accents in the planks. Oak Animoso impresses – and in a wide variety of furnishing styles. Warm and tangibly authentic. With Live Pure, the wood surface, which looks as though it has been freshly sawn, appears a touch lighter than with the naturally oiled variant.

Oak Vivo

As spirited and rustic as a walk through a sun-drenched natural oak forest: the grading of the Oak Vivo showcases the naturalness of the oak in all its glory. A fascinating grain with knots and variations for real statement looks, whether for a rustic ambience or as a strong contrast in urban or classic furnishing styles. If the surface of the Oak Vivo floor is treated with Live Pure, it looks as though it has been freshly sawn and is lighter than in the naturally oiled variant.

Simply tangibly different

Regardless of which of our surface treatments you opt for – the focus is always on the natural beauty and feel of the wood as well as its protection.

Live Natural oil

Live Natural is a ready-to-use oil based on valuable ingredients such as sunflower, thistle and soybean oil as well as natural waxes (carnauba, candellilla).

Live Pure lacquer

Live Pure is the innovative product development from BOEN: the oak planks with the Live Pure surface have a unique natural look. The lacquer protects the wood optimally.
